CORAM : D.B.BHOSALE,J.
DATE : 25.09.2006
PC:

1. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners.

2. In this group of writ petitions, the petitioners have challenged the similar orders dated 7.10.2005, allowing the amendment applications filed by the respondents in Spl.Civil Suit nos.20 to 24 of 2003. The respondents were directed to carry out the amendment within 15 days from the date of the order. It appears that the respondents have carried out the amendment, as directed by the impugned order, and in view thereof I am not inclined to exercise the writ jurisdiction under Article 227 of the Constitution of India at this stage. In the circumstances, this group of writ petitions is disposed of, with liberty to the petitioners to challenge the order impugned, it being interlocutory in nature, in further proceedings after disposal of their suits. All contentions are kept open. It is needless to express that if the petitioners have not filed additional written statement, they may do so within a period of six weeks from today.
